Maltby Learning Trust
Gender Pay Gap Report 2025: Snapshot data 31.3.2025

The Maltby Learning Trust (MLT) as an employer is required by law to carry out Gender Pay Reporting under the Equality Act 2010 (Gender Pay Gap Information) Regulations 2017; to demonstrate how large the pay gap is between our male and female employees.

We publish these results on our own website by 31st March each year. We use these results to assess:

The level of gender equality in our workplace.

- The balance of male and female employees at different levels.
- How effectively talent is being maximised and rewarded.

The overall gender pay gap is defined as the difference between the mean (average) or median (actual midpoint) hourly rate of pay of male and female employees.

The results of these statutory calculations are:

Mean Gender Pay Gap (All)

The difference between the average hourly earnings of male and female full pay relevant employees received is 21.1% (compared to 21.8% in 2024 and 22.9% in 2023).

Median Gender Pay Gap (All)

The difference between the middle of the distribution (the middle being where half men/women earn more, and half men/women earn less) hourly rate of pay that male and female full pay relevant employees receive is 27.1% (compared to 31.6% in 2024 and 30.4% in 2023).

Mean and Median Bonus Gap (All)

The Maltby Learning Trust (MLT) does not pay bonuses to employees.

Supporting Statement

The Maltby Learning Trust (MLT) is committed to the promotion of equality of opportunity and choice for employees and supports the fair treatment of all staff irrespective of gender through our transparent recruitment process, pay policy and professional development. Gender Pay Gap is different to Equal Pay. Equal Pay deals with the pay differences between men and women who carry out the same jobs, all our posts are aligned to nationally agreed pay scales and our male and female staff are paid with the same pay bands for the same job role. In common with most educational organisations, the MLT employs more female full pay relevant employees than male.

The Gender Pay Gap is a high level, non-adjusted indicator of male and female earnings which is affected by workforce distribution and workforce make-up. The overall pay gap reflects the workforce composition rather than pay inequalities.

Declaration

I can confirm that the above information has been prepared from our payroll data on the snapshot date and fairly represents the Gender Pay Gap Information for the Maltby Learning Trust.
